Name and Surname: Chris Sturgess
Designation: Director Commodities & Key Client Management

Dear Stakeholder,

We are delighted to see the interest in the recently launched BEEF carcass contract and so following demand from the market, we are pleased to introduce the SEP16 and DEC16 expiries for the BEEF carcass contract for trading on Wednesday 27 January 2016. This will afford market participants an opportunity to consider hedging further out than the currently listed Jun16 expiry.

Participants are reminded that the contract is cash settled off transactional data from registered abattoirs whom at this point are all members of the Red Meat Abattoirs Association. For more information around the RMAA please visit www.rmaa.co.za. The JSE will also be bolstering its price history around this product by providing the weekly spot price based on the information as supplied by RMAA. This will be available shortly on our webpage www.jse.co.za/beef and updated monthly by the JSE.
