SUBJECT: TICK SIZES FOR DELIVERABLE GRAIN CONTRACTS FINAL DECISION

Name and Surname: Chris Sturgess

Designation: Director: Commodities & Key Client Management

With reference to market notice 458/2016 distributed earlier this year, the JSE received a number of comments that supported the current status quo that we maintain the 20 cent tick interval across all deliverable grain contracts. After also discussing this briefly at an Agricultural Advisory Committee meeting, the JSE has decided to leave the tick intervals unchanged.

We also like to correct our previous notice that indicated the SUNS tick interval is R1.00, this was changed to R0.20 back in 2014 (Notice A2089) so please be aware of this, the tick interval is therefore standardized across all our deliverable grain contracts.

Should there be any remaining questions regards this decision please email commodities@jse.co.za
