Name and Surname: Bernard Claassens
Designation: Acting Head: Interest Rates & Currencies

Dear JSE Stakeholder

As agreed with the Bond ETP market committee, an amendment to the Bond ETP start time will take place to coincide with the change of the daylight savings time in Europe. This will affect the trading operating times and the availability of data for the Bond ETP market.

As from Monday, 29 October 2018, the Bond ETP market times will be as follows:

- The Start time moves from 07h30 (current) to 08h30 (new), and
- The End time will remain at 17h30 as per normal

Note that the Nutron platform for the reporting of bond transactions is NOT affected by this change and will operate as per normal.
