Date 12 December 2011

Permanent removal of minimum Reported Trade quantities for Futures and Options on AMS and KIO

With immediate effect, no minimum reported trade quantities will be applicable on the AMS and KIO Single Stock Futures and Options. The liquidity in the underlying equity cash market does not allow for an efficient on-screen derivative market in these instruments.

The remaining minimums still apply and can be viewed at the following URL: www.jse.co.za/minimums
