BEE Certificate

Members are referred to Market Notice no 147A and 147B dated 01 February 2011 relating to the Guidance Notes for the Trading, Clearing and Settlement and Custody of BEE Scheme Shares and are advised that the DTI/SANAS will not be in a position to issue the 1 page BEE Certificate until later on in February 2011. In terms of this it has been agreed that in the interim the current certificates as issued by accredited BEE verification agencies may be used. Members must check for the following when accepting the BEE Certificate

- That the certificate has been issued by an accredited BEE verification agency. A list of accredited agencies are available on SANAS's website URL http://sanas.co.za/directory/bbee_default.php
- That the certificate has not expired – BEE Certificates are only valid for 12 months
- That the certificate has been issued using the “flow through basis”
- That the ownership or control of the non-natural person is 50%+1
