Section 7: Market conduct

7.10 [Manipulative or deceptive trading practices] Prevention and detection of market abuse

7.10.1 A member must give consideration to the circumstances of orders placed by clients before entering such orders in the JSE equities trading system and [is responsible for the integrity of such orders] must take reasonable steps to satisfy itself that such orders and any resultant trades will not result in a breach of the provisions of section 80 of the Act (Prohibited trading practices).

7.10.2 [A member or employee of a member may not use, or knowingly participate in the use of any manipulative or deceptive trading practice in an equity security, either for the account of the member or employee of a member, or on behalf of clients, which creates or may create –

7.10.2.1 a false or deceptive appearance of trading activity; or

7.10.2.2 an artificial price for such equity security.]

A member must ensure that all of its employees who are involved in the receipt of orders from clients and the execution of transactions in equity securities on the JSE equities trading system are familiar with the market abuse provisions in sections 77 to 80 of the Act and that those employees receive adequate training and guidance to enable them to recognise and avoid entering into any transaction on behalf of the member or its clients which will result in, or is likely to result in, a breach of those provisions.

7.10.3 [A member or employee of a member may not place an order in the JSE equities trading system to buy or sell equity securities which, to the knowledge of the member or employee of a member will, if executed, have the effect contemplated in rule 7.10.2.]

A member's compliance monitoring procedures must specifically include procedures to monitor orders entered into, and transactions executed on, the JSE equities trading system by the member and its employees, with the objective of identifying and taking appropriate action in relation to orders or trades that, in the reasonable opinion of the member, may constitute a breach of the provisions of sections 78 and 80 of the Act.

7.10.4 [Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, the following are deemed to be manipulative or deceptive trading practices:

7.10.4.1 Approving or entering on the JSE equities trading system –

7.10.4.1.1 an order to buy or sell an equity security with the knowledge that an opposite order or orders of substantially the same size at substantially the same time and at substantially the same price, have been or will be entered by or for the same or different persons with the intention of creating a false or misleading appearance of active public trading in connection with, or an artificial market price for, such equity security;

7.10.4.1.2 orders to buy any equity security at successively higher prices or orders to sell any equity security at successively lower prices for the purpose of unduly or improperly influencing the market price of such equity security;

7.10.4.1.3 an order at or near the close of the market, the primary purpose of which is to change or maintain the closing price of such equity security;

7.10.4.1.4 an order to buy or sell any equity security during an auction call session and cancelling such order immediately prior to the auction matching, for the purpose of creating or inducing a false or deceptive appearance of demand for or supply of such equity security;

- 7.10.4.1.5 an order to buy or sell an equity security which involves no change in the beneficial ownership of that equity security; or

- 7.10.4.4 employing any device, scheme or artifice to defraud any other person as a result of a transaction effected through the JSE equities trading system; or
- 7.10.4.5 engaging in any act, practice or course of business in respect of trading in equity securities which is deceptive or which is likely to have such an effect.]

In formulating and implementing the compliance monitoring procedures referred to in rule 7.10.3, a member is not expected to monitor every order entered into, and every trade executed on, the JSE equities trading system by the member, for the purpose of identifying potential market abuse. Nevertheless, whilst members are encouraged to implement monitoring procedures to detect any activity undertaken by the member's employees or its clients which may constitute a breach of the provisions of sections 78 and 80 of the Act, the procedures should, as a minimum, aim to detect activity which, to a reasonable person observing or reviewing such activity, would constitute a blatant breach of the provisions of sections 78 and 80 of the Act taking into account all relevant factors such as:

- 7.10.4.1 the identity of the parties to the transaction;
- 7.10.4.2 the perceived intention of the parties to the transaction;
- 7.10.4.3 the frequency and pattern of transactions over a period of time;
- 7.10.4.4 the effect of the transaction on market prices or volumes;
- 7.10.4.5 the size and timing of the transaction; or
- 7.10.4.6 a combination of two or more of these factors.

[7.20] [False, misleading or deceptive statements, promises and forecasts

A member or employee of a member may not, directly or indirectly, make or publish in respect of equity securities, or in respect of the past or future performance of a listed company –

- 7.20.1 any statement, promise or forecast which is, at the time and in the light of the circumstances in which it is made, false or misleading or deceptive in respect of any material fact and which the member or employee of a member knows, or ought reasonably to know, is false, misleading or deceptive; or
- 7.20.2 any statement, promise or forecast which is, by reason of the omission of a material fact, rendered false, misleading or deceptive and which the member or employee of a member knows, or ought reasonably to know, is rendered false, misleading or deceptive by reason of the omission of that fact.]

8.130 Advice on JSE authorised investments

8.130.1 In providing [investment] advice to a client, other than a professional client, in respect of JSE authorised investments, an ISP must –

8.130.1.1 take reasonable steps to obtain information regarding the client's financial situation, investment experience, particular needs and objectives in connection with the services required, to enable the member to provide the client with sound [investment] advice;

8.130.1.4 take reasonable steps to ensure that the client understands any [investment] advice that has been provided, as well as the nature and material terms and risks involved in the relevant transaction, so as to enable the client to make an informed decision; and

8.130.1.5 ensure that any [investment] advice provided is not for the primary purpose of maximising the income of the member.
