

Market Notice

Number: Y654
Date: 7 May 2011

Interim Announcement of the Interest Rate Market go-live on the NUTRON platform

Following sign-off by 39 of 43 members the JSE considers the dress rehearsal held on Saturday, 07 May 2011 successful. The JSE has therefore made the decision to go-live with the Interest Rate Market on the NUTRON system on Monday, 09 May 2011. The final notice in this regard requires a successful pass on two key tests;

- 1) Network connectivity between the JSE and Strate today, Saturday the 7th May. The IT Team is currently testing this, and when successful a further notice will be sent out.
- 2) Trade connectivity between Nutron and the Strate BMA system before business opens on Monday 9th May as per Market Notice Y651, Y651C and Y652A. Should this not be successful the JSE will invoke the roll-back plan to re-connect BTB to Strate. Members must ensure they plan for this eventuality.

The JSE would like to thank all market participants for their support during this week's parallel run and again today, in ensuring the success of this project.

We acknowledge that there is specific functionality users have requested to be added in further phases of this project. The JSE has noted these and further enhancements will be delivered in future releases.

All participants are encouraged to make use of the EXTERNAL test environment to ensure they are familiar with the NUTRON functionality

Once again thank you for your contribution to this successful dress rehearsal.
