

Free Trial Policy

JS≡

Free Trial Policy

JS≡

- Pg. 23 of MDP
- Pg. 25 of IMDP
- What is a Free Trial?
- Conditions of the Free Trial Policy

In this presentation we will cover the following...

JS≡

What is a Free Trial?

- Vendors can promote/market their products to prospective clients with ‘free’ JSE data for 30 days.

In addressing market needs and notwithstanding the express provisions in the Agreement, the JSE allows a Distributor or Re-Distributor only, to promote and/or market their products, by providing prospective clients (Trial Users) with access to all or any part of the Data (Trial Data) on a free trial basis for a period of 30 (thirty) days (Trial Period).

Conditions of the Free Trial Policy

The Contracted User (CU) is not required to get prior approval from the JSE.

Free access to the Trial Data may be given to Trial Users for the Trial Period only.

The CU must make sure that the appropriate systems and operational controls are in place:

Data is not used in breach of the Data Agreement

Use can be audited by the JSE

No subscription after Trial Period = Access to Data is terminated

Conditions of the Free Trial Policy (cont...)

Prospective clients who subscribe to any Data at the end of the Trial Period must be reported appropriately or obtain an Agreement with the JSE (use dependent).

The Contracted User must keep complete records in relation to each Trial User, for a period of 3 years from the date each record was created. Such records must include:

The name of the Trial User
(Form of unique ID)

The start and end date
of the Trial Period

Details of the Trial
Data that was provided

Closing

JSE

For any further questions, please contact the Market Data Team:
mdclients@jse.co.za

JSE