FUTURES CONTRACT	BRENT CRUDE OIL QUANTO	HEATING OIL	GASOLINE	NATURAL GAS
Determination of final cash settlement value	The final settlement price for cash settlement of the contract will require only a CME Group component, denominated in ZAR. There will be no foreign exchange rate adjustments. The CME Group settlement value (MTM) as published on the expiry date of the South African contract will be applied as the final cash settlement value. For details of the trading calendar please see the following link http://www.jse.co.za/Libraries/Commodity_Derivatives_Products_-_Quanto_Futures_Options/Trading_Dates_Quanto_Futures.sflb.ashx. Due to the time difference the final cash settlement value published by CME will only be reflected the following business day (which is the clearance date) for the final cash settlement process for remaining position holders. This value will be released to the market by 08h30 the following morning and processed as the final settlement value during the end of day clearing run – no trading will be accommodated on this day. An example the last trading day for NOV15 QPLD is Tuesday 10 November 2015, on this day the contract will cease to trade. On Wednesday 11 November 2015 no trading activity will be accommodated. Further the final cash settlement value (the CME Group settlement value (MTM) for 10 November 2015) will be released to the market by 8h30 and processed on 11 November 2015 as the final settlement during the end of day clearing run also initial margin held by the exchange will be returned to all position holders. Should the ZAR expiry day fall on an unannounced CME non trading day, the final cash settlement will reference the next CME business days MTM. The final ZAR settlement value will be rounded off to 4 decimals. The final ZAR settlement value will be publish via the trading system (NUTRON) the next business day and included in the end of day settlement prices. In the event that any of the reference markets are not available to determine the final settlement value, the JSE will consider all relevant facts, information and circumstances to determine the final cash settlement value in order to ensure that it reflects a fair market value.
