Note: Section 3 to be renumbered as required.

Corporate Governance

- 3.84 In addition to complying with paragraph 8.63(a), issuers must implement the following specific corporate governance practices and must disclose compliance therewith in their annual reports. (The effect of incorporating certain practices from the King Code in the Listings Requirements is to make their implementation mandatory, this is notwithstanding the fact that application of the corporate governance practices in the King Code is generally voluntary):
 - (a) ...
 - (g) the audit committee must, notwithstanding its duties pursuant to Section 94 of the Companies Act:

- (i) consider, on an annual basis, and satisfy itself of the appropriateness of the expertise and experience of the financial director;
- (ii) ensure that the issuer has established appropriate financial reporting procedures and that those procedures are operating, which should include consideration of all entities included in the consolidated group IFRS financial statements, to ensure that it has access to all the financial information of the issuer to allow the issuer to effectively prepare and report on the financial statements of the issuer;
- (iii) request from consider the audit firm (and if necessary consult with the audit firm on) the following information detailed in paragraph 22.15(h) in their in the assessment of the suitability for of appointment of their current or a prospective audit firm and designated individual partner both when they are appointed for of the auditor:
 - (aa) the first time and thereafter annually for every re-latest results

The issuer must confirm, by reporting to shareholders in its annual report, that the audit committee has executed the responsibilities set out in 3.84(g) above.

Appointment of auditors and reporting accountants

- 3.86 An applicant issuer may only appoint as its auditor and reporting accountant an audit firm and reporting accountant who is accredited as such on the JSE list of Auditors and Accounting Specialists, and an individual auditor who does not appear on the JSE list of disqualified individual auditors, as set out in Section 22. This requirement must be considered by the audit committee when recommending an auditor for appointment or reappointment at the annual general meeting as well for an applicant issuer prior to the listing.
- 3.87 Within 90 days of receiving notification that their audit firm has been removed from the JSE list of Auditors and Accounting Specialists, or their individual auditor being included on the JSE list of disqualified individual auditors, an applicant issuer must replace its auditor with an audit firm who is accredited or an individual auditor who is not disqualified. This change should be made before the auditor signs the next audit report. In the event that the applicant issuer receives notification after the auditor has commenced their assurance engagement audit, in such circumstances, it may not be possible for the issuer to appoint a new audit firm within the prescribed period. The applicant issuer must then approach the JSE who, at their discretion, may waive paragraph 3.86 above, for that specific assurance engagement. If such dispensation is granted the applicant issuer must caution shareholders as to the status of its audit firm. This warning must appear whenever reference is made to the auditors report in an announcement or in the financial statements themselves.

- 3.883.86 An applicant issuer must appoint an auditor and must ensure that its assurance engagement letter with the auditor requires notification to the applicant issuer without delay where the auditor has been prohibited from signing the audit report or is no longer registered with its regulator.
- 3.87 The following applies to the appointment of the auditor:
 - (a) the auditor must have demonstrated to the issuer that it has the necessary resources to carry out the relevant engagement, as described in paragraph 30 of ISQM 1;
 - (b) the auditor must not be prohibited by its regulator from performing the relevant assurance engagement;
 - (c) where the assurance engagement is performed in terms of paragraph 8.45, the auditor of the issuer may sign the relevant assurance opinion, provided that the auditor has performed such an assurance engagement or has completed the JSE approved training and has passed an examination, as approved by the JSE from time to time, within the last 12 months of the date of the assurance engagement.
 - Where this is not the case, the issuer must ensure that an additional individual auditor is appointed meeting the above provisions.
- 3.88 Where an auditor has been appointed but is subsequently prohibited from signing the audit report, or is no longer registered with its regulator, the auditor must be replaced within 90 days of such notification to the issuer or before the next audit report is signed, whichever is earlier.
- 3.89 Subject to the provisions of the Act and the MOI of the applicant issuer and its subsidiaries, subsidiaries of applicant issuer are not required to be audited.
- 3.8990 The requirements in paragraphs 3.86, 3.87, 3.88 and 3.87 with regard to the auditor and reporting accountant89 apply equally to those foreign registered entities with a primary listing on the JSE.

Section 22

Accreditation of Audit Firms, Reporting Accountants, Reporting Accountant Specialists and IFRS Advisers to provide accounting and/or advisory services to applicant issuers

Scope of section

The requirements relating to an accreditation mechanism for audit firms, individual auditors (collectively referred to as "auditors") reporting accountants, reporting accountant specialists and IFRS Advisers (collective referred to as "accounting specialists") are essential to ensure that the JSE is able to effectively fulfil its regulatory duties and responsibilities in respect of its regulation of issuers listed on the JSE.

It is of critical importance that these parties fulfil their duties in accordance with the applicable professional and industry standards as well as the Listings Requirements. It is essential that auditors and accounting specialists assist the JSE in upholding the integrity of the markets in listed securities that it operates.

This section sets out the requirements to ensure that any audit firm, individual auditor, IFRS adviser, reporting accountant and/or reporting accountant specialist that intends to provide accounting and/or advisory services to an applicant issuers is acceptable to the JSE.

The main headings of this section are:

- 22.1 Accreditation
- 22.3 General eligibility criteria
- 22.4 Criteria applicable to the audit firm
- 22.5 Criteria applicable to IFRS advisers
- 22.8 Criteria applicable to reporting accountants and reporting accountant specialists
- 22.10 The application process
- 22.15 Roles and responsibilities
- 22.19 Designation
- 22.20 Status
- 22.21 Termination of accreditation

Appendix to Section 22

Accreditation

- 22.1 For the purposes of this section, the terms "applicant issuers" or "issuers" include the definition set out in both the JSE Limited Listings Requirements and the Debt Listings Requirements.
- 22.2 Only an audit firm or reporting accountant accredited by the JSE may act as such for any applicant issuer. Individual auditors and reporting accountant specialists may only act for an applicant issuer, and IFRS advisers may only act as such for any audit firm, if these parties meet the applicable requirements and are not disqualified to fulfil these duties, as stipulated in these requirements.

Eligibility Criteria

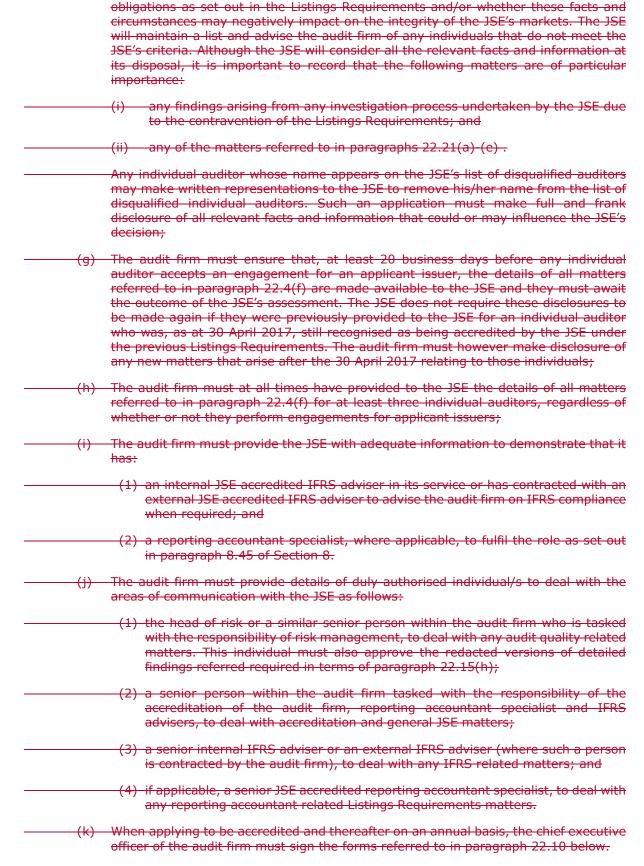

The eligibility criteria stipulated in the following sections 22.3 – 22.8 are there to ensure that an applicant issuer only appoints auditors and accounting specialists that meet the requirements stated in these sections.

Section 22 replaced in its entirety with effect from 15 October 2017.

General eligibility criteria

The audit firm, IFRS adviser, reporting accountant and reporting accountant specialist must, to the satisfaction of the JSE: comply with the specific criteria set out below for the area in which it is applying to be accredited: agree to be bound by, and discharge its responsibilities, in terms of the Listings Requirements: and be suitable and able to fulfil the responsibility that it wishes to undertake, which suitability and ability shall be determined based on all the facts and information at the disposal of the JSE, including the information contained in its declaration and with a view to ensuring that the integrity of the markets operated by the JSE are upheld and that the JSE is able to fulfil its regulatory duties and responsibilities in respect of applicant issuers and issuers listed on its exchange. Criteria applicable to the audit firm The audit firm and the individual auditor who will sign the assurance report of the applicant issuer must be registered with the IRBA for that purpose or in the instance of an audit firm and their individual auditors registered in a jurisdiction other than the Republic of South Africa, with a similar regulatory/ professional body for auditors. The following criteria must be met at all times by the audit firm in order to be accredited on the JSE list of Auditors and Accounting Specialists: The audit firm have at least three individual auditors who are registered as assurance individual auditors with their regulator and whose names do not appear on the JSE list of individuals that are disqualified as auditors as set out in paragraph 22.4(f) below; (b) The audit firm must have at least one IFRS adviser, either internal or external to the firm, accredited on the JSE list of Auditors and Accounting Specialists; The IRBA or regulatory/professional body for auditors in that jurisdiction must have completed a firm wide independent quality control (ISQC 1) inspection on the audit firm in its current or previous inspection cycle; The audit firm must provide to the JSE the information referred to in paragraph 22.15(f)(i) from the ISQC 1 inspection referred to in paragraph 22.4(c) above. The JSE will consider this information and may consult further with the audit firm and/or with the IRBA or regulator/professional body for auditors in that jurisdiction. The audit firm will only be accredited if the JSE is satisfied with the outcome of the ISQC 1 review based on its assessment of how any matters identified in the inspection may impact on the JSE's ability to fulfil its regulatory duties and responsibilities as well as an assessment of the impact that this review may have on the integrity of the JSE's markets; The audit firm must make available to the JSE the information referred to in paragraphs 22.15(f)(ii) to (vii) below. The JSE will consider this information and may consult further with the audit firm or regulator/professional body. The JSE will consider all facts and information at its disposal and will only accredit an audit firm if compelling reasons exist that any findings against such audit firm will not negatively impact on the audit firm's ability to fulfil its functions and duties as set out in the Listings Requirements and/or that the accreditation of such audit firm will not negatively impact on the JSE's regulatory duties and/or negatively impact on the integrity of the JSE's markets: The audit firm must not allow any individual auditor to perform any engagement for an applicant issuer if such individual is disqualified from acting as an auditor as provided for in this paragraph 22.4(f). The JSE will consider all relevant facts and information at its disposal, including, but not limited to whether facts and circumstances exist that will or may result in the inability of such individual to fulfil its

22.5 Persons wishing to be accredited as an IFRS adviser must confirm and provide the JSE with adequate information to demonstrate that they:

have spent the following minimum required hours on performing practical and interpretive IFRS consulting over the past 12 months in order to have a comprehensive working knowledge of IFRS; the Financial Reporting Pronouncements issued by the Financial Reporting Standards Council; and the SAICA Financial Reporting Guidelines issued by the Accounting Practises Committee: at least 800 hours at an individual level; or (ii) if the individual is one of two individuals who work as part of an IFRS advisory group, at least 500 hours per individual in the group. In such an instance every individual must indicate that they have specialised in different standards in such a manner that would satisfy the JSE that the group's combined 1 000 hours' knowledge is at least equivalent to that of a single individual with 800 hours; have access to a network of other IFRS advisers to adequately assist and advise on IFRS matters; and are registered with the IRBA or are members in good standing of a professional body. That body must have a code of ethics and disciplinary rules, to which its members are subject, which it regulates. Time spent on any other financial reporting framework, including IFRS for SMEs, will not be considered in ascertaining whether this requirement has been met. The JSE may undertake an assessment of the applicant's IFRS work previously performed in order to satisfy itself as to the acceptability of the IFRS adviser. This assessment may be done in consultation with the FRIP. The IFRS consulting referred to in paragraph 22.5 above must include a combination of the following: (a) the review of financial statements before being issued to assess IFRS compliance; advising internal or external clients on the interpretation and/or application of IFRS in so far as recognition, measurement and disclosure of transactions are concerned; providing practical training to internal or external clients on the application and interpretation of existing, revised and new IFRS; and (d) other practical matters insofar as IFRS is concerned. When applying to be accredited, the IFRS adviser must provide the JSE with a signed declaration, as set out in Schedule 2 Form E3, which deals with the relevant undertakings and information set out in the Appendix to Section 22 and must also: provide the information as set out in this paragraph 22.7. This should be accompanied by a list of clients to whom IFRS consulting and training was provided and a summary of the relevant hours spent on each main category (as detailed in paragraph 22.6 above) and the specific accounting matters/IFRS standards covered; not have been disqualified from registration by the IRBA or any other professional or regulatory body (alternatively full details must be provided); notify the JSE, within 5 working days, where an agreement between itself and a JSE accredited audit firm to act as external IFRS adviser has been entered into or terminated: and agree to provide information to the JSE and act as technical link between the JSE and the audit firm, individual auditor, reporting accountant and/or reporting accountants specialist in instances where the JSE requires interaction in relation to the IFRS reporting by an applicant issuer, and confirm that their contract with the audit who is employed by or who is a partner of the audit firm in question; (g) notify the JSE of the following, within 48 hours from the date of: receiving notice of the termination or the appointment of the audit firm/ individual auditor; giving notice of resignation by the audit firm/ individual auditor; and/or the appointment of a new individual auditor (where the audit firm remains unchanged), except in the instance where that appointment is as a result of rotation of audits amongst individuals in terms of the Act, then the audit firm can send one notification of all such changes on the last day of every quarter commencing on 30 November 2017. The notification must include details of the reason for the termination or resignation, and must provide a confirmation of whether or not any reportable irregularities were reported to the Independent Regulatory Board for Auditors in the past 12 months. For all such reportable irregularities reported, the confirmation must provide an indication of whether or not the auditor was able to send a second report to the Independent Regulatory Board for Auditors as contemplated by Section 45(3)(c) of the Auditing Profession Act 26 of 2005 prior to any such termination or resignation. (h) As a minimum, provide to the audit committee of all applicant issuers who are their clients either annually or when requested to by the audit committee in terms of paragraph 3.84(g) (iii) (or paragraph 7.10(b) as it relates to the Debt Listings Requirements), whichever occurs first, and to any prospective new clients when tendering for such work; the following for the latest inspection performed by the IRBA (or the regulatory or professional body for auditors in the case of an auditor registered in a jurisdiction other than the Republic of South Africa): the decision letter, findings report and the proposed remedial action to address the findings, on the audit firm. In the instance of a reinspection/s, both the original and re-inspection/s decision letters, findings reports and remedial action plans must be provided. If the content of these letters and reports reveal the identity of specific entities, a redacted version of that information may be provided in terms of the process set out in 22.15(h)(4) below, and where applicable; (2) the decision letter, detailed findings report and the proposed remedial action to address the findings, on the individual auditor where the engagement file subject to the inspection was for that specific applicant issuer or one of its subsidiaries; the decision letter for all other engagement file reviews on both the individual auditor who will be the applicant issuers designated individual auditor for the next audit and, if the audit firm remains unchanged, on the designated individual auditor for the past audit; for the engagements referred to in paragraph 22.15(h)(3) above, where the regulator has identified that a specific issue is unsatisfactory and that they will perform a re-inspection on an engagement file of that individual auditor due to that issue and/or have referred the matter for investigation, an appropriate redacted version of the detailed findings report and proposed remedial action plan. In the instance of a reinspection both the original and re-inspection decision letters and an appropriate redacted version of the detailed findings report and proposed remedial action plan must be provided. A redacted version is one where the name of the entity and any information that could reveal their identity has been blacklined. The person described in 22.4(j)(1) must approve to act as technical link between the JSE and the audit firm/individual auditor/reporting accountant and/or reporting accountant specialist in instances where the JSE requires interaction in relation to the IFRS reporting by the applicant issuer; and to provide the JSE with the documented evidence of the work it has performed in the instance of paragraph 22.17(a) above. 22.18 The role that the reporting accountant specialist fulfils is the following: (a) to provide appropriate advice to the applicant issuer and, if applicable, to the individual auditor on the application of the financial information requirements detailed in the Listings Requirements: before any circular is submitted to the JSE for informal comment and to ensure that this advice has been applied and to confirm this in writing to the JSE; when the applicant issuer includes pro forma financial in any of the periodic financial information referred to in section 3 and to ensure that this advice has been applied and advise the JSE in writing if this is not the case; and in the instances of a circular referred to in paragraph 22.18(a)(i) to either sign off on the reporting accountant's report of the audit firm itself, or perform a quality review function on the work performed to support every reporting accountant's report, in order to ensure compliance with the Listings Requirements (in which case it must submit a letter to the JSE confirming that it has fulfilled this role). Status and termination of accreditation Designation 22.19 An audit firm, IFRS adviser, reporting accountant and/or reporting accountant specialist accredited with the JSE and entered onto the JSE list of Auditors and Accounting Specialists will be entitled, but not required, to state on its business documentation that it is accredited with the JSE. Status 22.20 If an audit firm, IFRS adviser, reporting accountant and/or reporting accountant specialist does not to the satisfaction of the JSE fulfil the responsibilities above or fully comply with the eligibility criteria set out in this Section 22, either at the time of application or any time thereafter, the JSE will: (a) in the case of a new application, not accredit the audit firm, IFRS adviser, reporting accountant and/or reporting accountant specialist; or in the case of a currently accredited audit firm, IFRS adviser, reporting accountant and/or reporting accountant specialist, consider withdrawing or terminating its accreditation and removing its name from the JSE list of Auditors and Accounting Specialists. Termination of accreditation Where the JSE finds that an audit firm, IFRS adviser, reporting accountant and/or reporting accountant specialist has: contravened, or failed to adhere to, its responsibilities set out in this section 22; (b) been found quilty or agreed to a consent order in terms of any legal, regulatory review or disciplinary finding arising from any processes instituted by any professional body of which it is a member or another regulator to which it is accountable; been found quilty of and/or paid a fine and/or was sanctioned in any manner for a breach of the FMA:

(d) been found guilty and convicted, whether in South Africa or elsewhere, of theft, fraud, forgery, uttering a forged document, perjury, an offence under the Prevention and Combating of Corrupt Activities Act (No. 12 of 2004), or any offence involving dishonesty; or

(e) had any legal or disciplinary findings ,including a consent order, payment of a fine or sanction, made against them in terms of any other legislation.

The JSE may:

- (i) refer the matter to the IRBA (or, if applicable, to a similar regulatory or professional body for auditors in a jurisdiction other than South Africa) or in the instance of an IFRS adviser refer the matter to the individual's professional body;
- (ii) advise the audit committee of the issuer; and/or
- (iii) terminate the accreditation of and remove the name of the audit firm, IFRS adviser, reporting accountant and/or reporting accountant specialist from the JSE list of Auditors and Accounting Specialists.
- 22.22 Implicit in the relationship between the JSE, issuers and an audit firm, IFRS adviser, reporting accountant and/or reporting accountant specialist and as a result of the functions of these parties, its duty to make full and frank disclosure to the JSE of any issues that may impact on its suitability to perform its responsibilities and discharge its obligations as set out in the Listings Requirements. Furthermore, it is incumbent on an audit firm, IFRS adviser, reporting accountant and/or reporting accountant specialist to, in the event of any potential contravention of their responsibilities set out in this section 22, the presence of any of the issues as set out in paragraphs 22.15(f) and 22.21 and/or any other factors that may impact on its ability to suitability perform its responsibilities, provide compelling reasons to prove to the satisfaction of the JSE that it is still competent and suitable to fulfil the responsibilities and obligations that it wishes to undertake.
